

SPONSORED BY THE
Department of Women's & Gender Studies

CAN PSYCHIATRISTS STOP GUN VIOLENCE?

ASSESSING FIREARMS THROUGH THE INTERSECTIONS
OF RACE, GENDER, & MENTAL HEALTH

A Roundtable Conversation Featuring Special Guest

JONATHAN METZL
VANDERBILT UNIVERSITY

October 29, 2015
3:00-5:00 PM

Leadership Auditorium

Jonathan Metz is the Frederick B. Rentschler II Professor of Sociology and Psychiatry, and the Director of the Center for Medicine, Health, and Society, at Vanderbilt University. A 2008 Guggenheim fellow, Professor Metz has written extensively for medical, psychiatric, and popular publications.

Kelli Canada
(SCHOOL OF SOCIAL WORK)

Ty-Ron M. O. Douglas
(DEPT. OF BLACK STUDIES)

Moderator:

Julie Passanante Elman
(DEPT. OF WOMEN'S AND GENDER STUDIES)

For Accessibility Requests, Please Contact Julie Elman (elmanj@missouri.edu)